Travel Guide

By Matthew Moneron

I. Pick up your bags

I mean just leave one day, after planning a visit to Italy or to even say an Argentine beach.

II. Crisis in Travel

I argue there can be no crisis in travel, if you know how to travel. The rest of the work is on knowing how to travel as a tourist especially.

III. A Itinerary

First stopping in Italy, sight seeing, and even staying in a distant outskirts hotel. Here I sense the Sistine Chapel. I also visit Rome and Milan. I see people around me.

IV. Knowing Travellers

Travellers comment “I love travelling because I see different cultures and learn from different cultures. In Bolivia, La Paz, people are tribal. In one treck in Machu Pichu, I found a beautiful cloth piece and wear it. I also buy hats and walk to La Paz, a long walk.”
